

Principal components computed separately within each plate, on the 500 most variable probes of variance-stabilised counts. Drug wells at 10 μ M with plate-matched vehicle.